

COMMUNITY MUSIC CENTER

MUSIC FOR EVERYONE SINCE 1921

CMC's mission is to make high quality music accessible to all people, regardless of their financial means.

Programs

- Private lessons on 30 instruments (including voice), composition, musicianship and theory
- Instruction in diverse musical styles including Western classical, jazz, Latin, blues, and Chinese
- Ensemble classes such as Cuban Salsa, Jazz Improv, Tango Ensemble, Latin Vocal and String Orchestra Workshop
- Group classes for adults in Music Theory, Musicianship, Composition, Body-Mind Centering and Feldenkrais
- Group classes and ensembles for youth including Family Music, Children's Chorus, Teen Jazz Orchestra, and Summer Camps
- Award-winning Young Musicians Programs: free private lesson and ensemble programs for diverse, primarily low-income youth
- Adult Certificate Program
- Choirs for older adults in partnership with SF senior centers
- Music Therapy
- Free or low-cost concerts, workshops and master classes in CMC's 130-seat concert hall
- Affordable concert hall, practice room, and instrument rentals

Tuition Assistance

- CMC's mission of accessibility drives every aspect of its work. Its tuition assistance program, last year nearing $1.7 million, supported students through free programs, scholarships, sliding-scale tuition, and work study.
- CMC serves a cross-section of the community, with a focus on diverse, low-income families.

Budget: $4.8 million for fiscal year 2016

People Served

Last year over 2,400 students of all ages studied at CMC. More than 20,000 attended CMC performances.

Faculty

CMC's 130 skilled teachers include noted professional artists, Grammy Award-winning musicians and nationally recognized teachers. Many are bilingual, and teach in a wide range of styles.
